

7 ID-C Laser Incident

- General user suspected that he viewed diffused laser light
- Occurred on a Saturday evening, but waited until COB next Wednesday to notify beamline staff
- APS staff arranged for new eye examination – no injury found
- Initial fact-finding team interviewed general user
- ORPS report filed as a Management Concern due to questions regarding administrative control of laser setup
- Investigation committee formed to evaluate administrative controls followed – In Progress

